

W.S. 31-7-137: Proof of receipt of notice or order; change of address or name.

(a) Evidence that a notice or order from the division under this act was mailed to the last known address of a person is prima facie proof the person received the notice or order five (5) days after the notice or order was mailed. As used in this section, "last known address" means the address on file with the division.

(b) A person licensed under this act shall notify the division in writing within ten (10) days of any change of his address or name. The division shall maintain a record of the names and addresses of all persons licensed under this act and shall amend the record when notified under this subsection.

(c) When a licensee changes his name, mailing address or residence, an application for a duplicate license shall be made within ten (10) days of the date of the change.
